Something felt way, way off.
I feel... different.
And then I realized...
I've woken up with a superpower! A superpower that lets me...
I'm very nervous and I need to go for a walk
I thought that I didn't have to be sad because I think that having a superpower would be cool, it wouldn't be so bad
I've already come home and I don't know whether to tell my parents or not
I have decided that I am not going to tell him and if i help someone?
I can't find anyone
I see a dinosaurjjjjj
ugh i've come home
